5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Importance of Disclosure

- (i) STATEMENT PURSUANT TO FINANCIAL SERVICES ACT 2013, Section 129, Schedule 9, Para 5: It is the duty of the customer to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the licensed insurer when answering any question which the insurer may request that are relevant to the decision of the insurer whether to accept the risk or not and the rates and terms to be applied.
- (ii) You must ensure that your property is insured at the appropriate amount. Should the loss amount be greater than the sum insured, you shall bear a rateable proportion of the loss accordingly.
- (iii) If at the time of any loss, damage or liability covered by this policy, there shall be any other insurance covering the same risk, AmGeneral shall not be liable for more than its rateable proportion thereof.
- (iv) Reinstatement value basis for electrical appliances or equipment less than 5 years from the date of purchase – we will pay the cost of replacing the lost or damaged property with the property of the same kind or type but not superior to or more extensive than the insured property when new. Average condition will apply if underinsured.
- (v) Premium warranty – the insurance must be paid and received by the company / authorised agent within 60 days from policy inception date. If this condition is not complied with this policy is automatically cancelled and AmGeneral shall be entitled to the prorata premium on the period we have been on risk.

6. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

This policy does not cover certain losses, such as:

- Loss or damage to building;
- Loss or damage to property due to theft will not be payable if the insured premise is left unoccupied for more than 90 days in any one year of insurance, whether at one time or in aggregate;
- War, terrorism, civil war and radioactive contamination;

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the sample policy contract for the full list of exclusions under this policy.

7. Can I cancel my policy and how do I cancel it?

You may cancel your policy by giving a written notice to the insurance company in which case we shall retain the customary short period rate or minimum premium for the time the policy has been in force. No refund of premium will be allowed if there is a claim under the policy.
